

Brothers and sisters, in today's readings we will hear that God provides abundantly for us. But so often we refuse God's gifts or don't even perceive them. Let us pray today for eyes open to abundance, and for hearts and hands ready to share what is set before us.

Today's Readings: Isaiah 25:6-10a, Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20; Matthew 22:1-14.

To Prepare for Next Week: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b; Matthew 22:15-21.

These people have recently died. Our thoughts and prayers are with their families and friends.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE REPOSE OF:

PAUL WILKENS, parishioner and husband of Joan. His Mass of Christian Burial from St. Charles was Friday, October 7.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK OF ST. CHARLES: Diane Butler-Hughes, Dennis Chapman, Michael Macchia, Edwina Oneill, and Pilar Weiss.

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

This five week series provides a unique tour of the timeless liturgy. It explores the biblical roots of the words and gestures we experience in Mass and explains their profound significance. Participants will see why they say what they say and do what they do every week at Mass. Seeing the words and gestures in a new light will lead to a richer, more fruitful worship experience. This study is the perfect way to learn about the Mass in the context of the new translation coming in Advent 2011. The series is on Thursdays from 7:00-8:30 pm beginning October 13 and running through November 10. The participant fee is $15.00 for a workbook and other materials. To register, call 434-9272.

SCHOOL NEWS : The 4th graders have learned a lot about St. Vincent DePaul and in honor of his feast day, Sep. 27 they sponsored a food drive for the Oak Creek United Church of Christ. They made posters to advertise this event and posted them around school. They also wrote their own reminder messages to the student body and some 4th graders read these over morning announcements. They feel goodt about “living” Jesus’ message on feeding the hungry.

Mrs. Waker’s 5th grade religion class had seminarian Brian Phelps as a guest speaker. The students got a chance to learn all about Mr. Phelps’ life, and most importantly, the journey that he is taking to become a priest. The students learned all about the seminary, and what made Mr. Phelps decide to become a priest. They also had the chance to ask Mr. Phelps questions, such as, what did your family think when you told them you wanted to become a priest? Some of the most important things that Mr. Phelps told the 5th graders was to always make time for God in your busy day, even if it is just a quick “thank you” and to always pray. Mr. Phelps also explained that we should not ask “What do I want to do with my life?” but, instead we should ask, “What does GOD want me to do with my life?” Thank you, Mr. Phelps!

8th religion students spent some time sharing a piece of modern Christian music that had a message that resonated with them. Each student also found a scripture passage that made a connection with the music.

Embracing Change in the Liturgy – Part V

What if I don’t like the new translation?

For most people, the unfamiliar is always uncomfortable, at least at first. The more familiar the old is, the more challenging it may be to accept and embrace the new. It is completely normal to feel uncomfortable as you begin studying and reading the new texts. Taking steps to become more familiar with the texts can help a great deal. At the same time, be open to the possibility that you will find things to appreciate in the rich language of the new texts. The more you read them and study them and pray them, the more familiar and comfortable they will become and the more you will appreciate the theological depth they convey.

Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.

Taking the time to learn more about your faith, including the Mass and Scripture, can help you appreciate the new texts more fully. Using the catechetical opportunities made available by your parish and diocese can help you overcome concerns about the changes.

Finally, you can take your concerns to God in prayer. Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.
